

FBI Caught Faking Terror Events

People often write in telling me my theories are whack, since no one is faking events. Well, tell that to a judge in New York who ruled the FBI is in fact faking events, and doing it just as I have claimed for years. That link is to the AP, not Stormfront. In it we find judge McMahon ruling the FBI faked a 2009 “post 911” terrorism event in which down-and-out ex-cons allegedly targeted New York synagogues.

“The real lead conspirator was the United States,” McMahon wrote in granting the men’s request for compassionate release.

These men participated in what she called the government’s “made for TV movie.” But, the judge added, “the sentence was the product of a fictitious plot to do things that these men had never remotely contemplated, and that were never going to happen.”

In a scathing ruling, McMahon wrote that the FBI invented the conspiracy and identified the targets.

The FBI informant in this case is Shahed Hussain, alias Muhammad, supposedly a Pakistani who became an FBI undercover agent.

At trial, the jury heard testimony that Hussain was posing as a wealthy representative of a Pakistani terrorist organization. He drove a BMW and other luxury vehicles provided by the FBI to maintain his cover. He also made hundreds of hours of video and audio tapes of the defendants picking targets and ranting against Jews.

However, note that his surname is Hussain, which is the same as Hussein, as in Saddam Hussein, Barack Hussein Obama, etc. A top hoaxing family, as we have seen in many papers. And if he is Pakistani, it is only in a few lines, since as it turns out he is also . . . Jewish. He named his son Nauman, which is not a Pakistani name. It is a very old Israelite name that we have also seen in many papers. Nauman is now in jail for manslaughter, by the way.

Note these fake events involve synagogues and fake anti-Semitism.

This isn't the only fake terrorism event Hussain has been involved in, either:

Hussain was a central player in an FBI sting targeting an Albany pizza shop owner and an imam who were convicted of money laundering and conspiring to aid a terrorist group. Both defendants said they were tricked by Hussain during the sting, which involved a business loan using money from a fictitious missile sale.

More recently, a botched sting involving Hussain in Pittsburgh became the subject of a documentary called "(T)error." Hussain's role in the Newburgh case was also the subject of an HBO documentary.

A third film called Witness documented in 2022 another fake event involving Shahed Hussain in 2005 in Albany. In that one, the lead perp was also named Hossain, but because they have changed another letter they don't even bother saying "no relation". But that wouldn't be my assumption. Probably cousins both paid to manufacture this event, which involved financing fake arms shipments to terrorists.

As for the HBO film, you would expect them to be selling the FBI's story, but surprisingly they weren't. The documentary was saying the same things in 2014 that the judge is now saying. Which takes us another floor down the rabbit hole, since the FBI consulted on the HBO documentary. Why would they supply information to documentarians blowing their cover?

Because this is a fake within a fake. You can tell by judge McMahon's ruling, which still makes no sense. If these guys were entrapped, they should be released immediately, not in 90 days, and they should be up for millions of dollars for time illegally spent in jail. They would be up for that compensation even if this was just a mistake. But it wasn't a mistake, it was intentional, which means the judge should be bringing up the FBI agents and their bosses for major crimes. The bailiff should have arrested the whole lot of them before they left the courtroom, for civil rights violations, fraud, conspiracy, and about ten other major crimes. Instead, the FBI is skating completely, with only the usual scolding. Do you think they will be chastened by the judge's sharp words? You have to laugh.

This series of trials was faked like the rest, as usual to spin information that had already hit the mainstream. These bozos were never in jail, since they were actors like the rest. Once they got caught faking this event by private investigators, the clean-up crew was sent in to spin the whole thing, by partially admitting the fake but making sure no one in government had to answer for it. Also hiding the true extent of the fake by making you think these guys were really entrapped, rather than just government actors themselves. That makes you think they really wanted to commit these crimes targeting Jews, but that they were too stupid to do it without the FBI supplying them weapons and know-how. Judge McMahon says it outloud: the crimes and criminals were still heinous, which is why she is reducing their sentences to time served instead of zero. That leaves intact the anti-Semitic foundation of the story, you see, which was the whole point of it from the start. So that part of the script magically survives, even after this grand admission of fraud. After it is all said and done, the Jews can say there are still these people targeting them, and that if not for the FBI, some of them might succeed.

So not only does everyone at the FBI skate, Congress continues to fully fund these offices and agents.

Another thing this fake news does is keep your eyes on the FBI and off the real big dogs at CIA, DIA, NSA, DHS, ONI, Air Force and many other agencies. It is the same thing we saw in alternative coverage of January 6, where FBI has been the fall guy. No one but me has fingered the Air Force or other Pentagon actors there. After Watergate, FBI was basically mothballed, with CIA taking over all its interesting work and FBI just being this cardboard front to draw fire. Somewhat like Congress and the Presidency. All are now staffed from Actors Equity.
