

The New Match Game

warning: if you are offended by sexual humor, read no further

In 2016, ABC brought back the Match Game, this time hosted by Alec Baldwin. It isn't bad. The questions are even better than the old ones, since the writers are allowed to be racier and can include much more in the subject matter. However, they should mix in a few non-racy questions, just as a matter of balance. As it is, the show is pretty one-dimensional, with every question having to do with sex. The stars aren't quite as clever as one could wish, either. They either need to bring back Patti Deutsch or feed answers to the stars (like they did with Paul Lynde on Hollywood Squares). Below are some actual questions from 2016-17, with additions by me.

When I was walking down the beach, I found a message in a bottle. It said, “I am trapped on a deserted island with Scarlett Johanssen. Please send _____.”

lame answers were:

condoms

massage oil

divorce papers

Before I get to my answer, I really have to comment on the number one answer “condoms”, which came up three times out five. I direct you to the keyword in the question “deserted”. This was a deserted island, so I don't think they would be worried about overpopulation. Plus, have you ever had sex with condoms? You might as well not bother. It would be like finally getting a chance to see the Mona Lisa and putting on welder's glasses. The answer “condoms” would be the absolutely last thing I would ever think of to fill in that blank. It is not only not funny, it is sad.
