

FAKE RACE WARS

I have said it before but I will say it again: everything you see in the media now is fake. All the riots are staged by the CIA, FBI, Air Force, and Pentagon. Antifa, BLM, Proud Boys, Oath Keepers, #Metoo, LGBTQIA: all fake, all crisis actors hired by the government to create a fake race war and war of Red v. Blue and a war of men against women. And both sides are in on it, not just the Dems or liberals. The conservatives are also selling all this theater as real, including Tucker Carlson, Infowars, Gateway Pundit, Natural News, Zerohedge, and everyone else.

If you still don't believe me after all the evidence I have shown over the years, there is no help for you, but consider the massive contradiction here no one is noticing, much less reporting on. On the one hand, we are supposed to believe revolutionary spirit is running very HIGH, especially among blacks and leftists. You would think those on the right would be the most radicalized, since they are the most politically repressed right now, but that isn't what we see on the news. What we see are riots by blacks and radical leftists, destroying everything in their paths with no resistance from police. We see politicians like Maxine Waters and many others encouraging this, with no resistance. Plus, the whole movement is supported by Big Tech, especially Google, Twitter, and Facebook. That should immediately be suspicious, since all those places are Intel fronts. They were created by Intelligence and are run by them. That isn't a conspiracy theory: the mainstream admits it.

But on the other hand, we are supposed to believe revolutionary spirit is running very LOW. And we can see this with our own eyes—not on TV, but on the streets around us. There has been very little pushback against the masks, lockdowns, and other draconian measures pushed on us by governors, mayors, and so-called health departments. The streets are empty, almost no one is getting arrested, almost no one is suing, and almost no one is standing up for their Constitutional rights. People are scared to fight back, and very few of them are.

So how can it be both ways? How can revolutionary spirit be both very high and very low at the same time? Obviously, it can't. One of these scenarios must be fabricated, and we know it is the one in the media since we can see the low scenario all around us every day. Unless you trip across one of these fake riots in Portland or somewhere, not realizing it is fake, you will never see one. If you know someone who has participated, he or she is either an agent or a dupe, so remember that. Your friend that participated is either an idiot, just caught up on the fringes, or he has been paid to be there. He is collecting an appearance fee from the FBI or Air Force or someone. Those are the only two choices, so you better figure that out. You will say that isn't possible, since there must be tens of thousands of people taking part in these riots all over the country. They can't all be actors.

Oh yes they can, my dear. You just aren't keeping up. There are literally millions of people in the military and in the various Intel agencies, and they have nothing better to do than run these fake events. That is what they do now, to stay busy and to justify their paychecks. They are getting paid to do something everyday, and this is what it is. And if they need local people already on the ground, those are also very easy to hire. There are tens of thousands of out-of-work actors and actor wannabes who will do anything for very little pay, as long as there is a chance of getting on camera. If they get to break windows, throw paint bombs, fire off fake pepper spray, or stage fights, so much the better. It is a huge party and they probably enjoy it a lot. Why wouldn't they? Many people reading this will probably ask how they can get involved, since it sounds like great fun: tearing the crap out of everything and getting paid for it, while the police stand by as protection.

CNN is reporting that there have been 23 mass shootings in the last month, with three in the last 24 hours. Except that. . . every single one is faked, being a military theater project. In almost every one there is an obvious military connection. This is what happens when—in peacetime—you have a standing army of over a million and an Intelligence system of five million or more: they get bored. They need to find something to do, and this, my friends, is what they have found to do. They run fake events all over the country and world 24/7. They literally have nothing better to do.

You will tell me the places getting torched and vandalized can't have agreed to this, but again, you aren't keeping up. Notice that the places getting vandalized tend to be the same places over and over: police stations and certain businesses. It is called a false flag. The police stations attack themselves, telling the rioters how to limit the damage by breaking things easy to replace or that need to be replaced anyway. Same with the businesses, who are reimbursed by the government for damage, or who collect insurance on stuff they wanted to get rid of anyway. It is all just one more colossal scam, one in a very very long line of colossal scams.

But why? Again, that is easy, and I have explained it many times. It is a massive diversion. They created these race wars and Red/Blue wars, and man/woman wars on purpose, so that you are fighting each other instead of them. Since early 2020, the richest people have added more to their wealth than ever before, and they are stealing most of it right out of the treasuries of the world. The fake covid pandemic was created both as a cover for that and as an extension, since they are also billing the government—ie you as a taxpayer—for the unnecessary and dangerous vaccines, the signage, the masks, the lockdowns, and all the other mitigation. You are being raped in multiple ways, and they have to keep your eyes off that. Oh, and by the way, you are also being billed for all this riot theater, including the fake trials. All that is being paid for by the state and the nation, via you the taxpayer.

And it didn't start in 2020. They upped the ante in 2020, but they have been doing this for two decades. It first went into overdrive in about 2006, five years after 911. They got away with 911 and the following wars, with no one being held accountable, so they figured the sky was the limit. They could do anything they wanted and no one would lift a finger to stop them. So they ran a huge financial con in 2006/7, stealing trillions from the worldwide treasuries. The richest people got about 7 times richer in the period after that, raking in a huge percentage of worldwide wealth. But still no one stopped them. Very few people even noticed, since they hired the media to sell it as a bailout or quantitative easing or some other equally asinine cockbull story, rather than as the grand theft it was. So they figured why stop there? If they could steal 4 or 5 trillion in the US alone in broad daylight with no consequences, why not try for 20 or 30 trillion? Why not take everything? As they admitted in Jack Reacher, “We take what can be taken”. And so 2020 arrived, and they are taking every last dime.

So all this is about keeping your eyes off the billionaires and trillionaires running a bevy of fake projects to drain the treasury, and keeping your eyes on your black or white or red or blue neighbor. They are stoking the hatred in a multitude of ways, so that if anything real happens, it won't be directed at them. Russia and China are being used to the same effect. They have created an entire slate of fake enemies: Russia, China, Syria, Iran, North Korea, blacks, whites, reds, blues, Trumppers, liberals, conservatives, Bidenites, trannies, white supremacists, feminists, social justice warriors, and on and on and on. All so that you miss the real enemy: the rich ruling class playing you like sad guitar.

Even someone like Charles Barkley—not the brightest bulb—has understood this. He recognizes that the race wars are being scripted, though I am not sure he realizes the extent of it. Maybe he does. How about you wake up, too? And not just concerning the fake race war. Also the fake battle of the sexes, the fake red/blue war, the fake conflicts with Russia and China, and all the rest.

Also recognize, please, that they are grooming the Republican party as your savior, especially Trump. They are trying to move everyone to the right, and they are doing that by making the left look really bad. Yes, the whole thing on the left is a planned fail, including the absurd “defund the police” movement. Do you really think anyone wants to defund the police? No, everyone in government on both sides has always wanted to expand the police, and always has, and the goal of this will be to expand them once again. That is one of the main reasons for staging the riots, beyond misdirection. They want you to beg the police to come back and protect you. They want you to agree to higher taxes to fund MORE police, and this is a great way to do that. Trump or someone will come in soon as your “law-and-order” President to save the country from itself. I guarantee it. They are just borrowing a page from the Nazi handbook, since Hitler did exactly the same thing. He (or those behind him, actually) created a bunch of fake destabilizing events, so that the Germans thought things were spinning out of control. Hitler and his goons then came in and “restored order” by clamping down on freedoms even more. So that is where this is going, if you don't wake up and stop it.

You CAN wake up and stop it by pushing back. Not by rioting, but by peacefully striking, boycotting, and saying no. But to do that, you have to understand that everything is theater. Otherwise you will be too scared. You will think the police are really shooting people, beating them up, jailing them, and so on. But for the most part, they aren't. It is all staged to scare you off the streets. You have to realize they don't need a real gestapo if they can convince you of a fake one. If they can stage a few events and get them in the media, that will work just as well at creating fear as any number of real events. One fake murder blown up in the right way in the media is worth a hundred real murders, and they know that.

And yes, I am telling you that Hitler's gestapo was theater, like all the rest of it. Same for Mussolini's blackshirts. It was all a fake, like the riots now. But people believed it was happening, which was just as good. Intelligence has known for centuries that a fake event beats a real one every time. The fake event creates at least as much fear—and probably more since it can be controlled and inflated for effect—while a real event may create martyrs and real heroes. They don't want that.

I know that is hard to believe, which is why I have covered so many events of history, showing you exactly how and why they were faked. So if you don't believe me and haven't read my previous papers, you have some reading to do. I have proved all the serial killers were fake, the assassinations were staged, the beheadings of kings were fake, the big revolutions were staged, and the recent mass murders were all hoaxes. So there is literally nothing to fear but fear itself. There is nothing to fear but your own continuing to play the victim in this stageplay.
