

THE EASY SOLUTION TO TITLE IX

What is being missed in this promotion of transgender men in women's sports is that the whole idea runs completely counter to the larger women's rights movement of the past century. That movement was based on fairness from the beginning, but this is obviously unfair on the face of it. It is an unbelievably transparent blow against women, and it will end up removing the female gender from most sports altogether.

But given that that removal may take a few years, female athletes would be smart to accelerate that as much as possible, to show people what it really means. If I were a female athlete, I would boycott all competition tomorrow, boycott the NCAA, and withdraw from college or university. I would withdraw from the Olympics or any national or international competition, and tell them to see if they can run it without women. In other words, real women need to unionize immediately and go on strike. They need to completely shut down women's sports until this decision is reversed. What is more, all women in sports administration need to do the same. If this happened, the problem could be solved almost overnight.

I am not recommending that any woman quit her sport. I am recommending an immediate and complete strike. Such a strike wouldn't last long, and you can continue to train while it proceeds. If a large proportion of female athletes and administrators strike, this will be over in a matter of months.

I will be told that quitting is a cowardly move and won't work. But I have used it many times and it does work. It isn't cowardly and it gets across the message faster and more completely than anything else can. It isn't "quitting", it is refusing to be involved in corruption, bad decisions, and oppression. It is refusing to be taken advantage of. It is demanding to be treated fairly, or you won't show up, period. IT DOES WORK, and it works fast.

It is just to say NO, I am not going along with this. I will not participate in this fraud. I refuse to be treated this way. If you want to go ahead with this, you will be doing it without us. We will be against you all the way.

And once that is done, the rest of the country can follow their example and also begin a general strike, refusing to play along any longer with the governors' fascist theater. We can refuse the masks, refuse the vaccines, and refuse all the other lies of the media and government.
