TWO, TWO, TWO FAKES IN ONE!

by Miles Mathis

First published July 25, 2021

FBI agent Richard Trask (above) has been arrested for allegedly assaulting his wife. Coincidentally, he was also involved in the alleged plot to kidnap Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer. Trask supposedly entrapped the Wolverine Watchmen, a paramilitary group, and brought them to “justice” for the plot. You have to laugh. Is anyone still gullible enough to buy these stories?

Let's see, how many were arrested in the Whitmer plot? 13. When was that? October 8, 2020. That would be 10/8, aces and eights, Chai.

At Wikipedia, we are told the ADL has identified Michigan as a hothouse of militia and far right groups. Well, no reason to doubt the ADL, right? The Anti-defamation League has a spotless record, right? Actually, no, since it was founded on the fake Leo Frank event of 1913. That involved the Pinkertons, which should tell you it was fake from the first word. The Pinkertons were like the CIA of the time, and finding them involved here is decisive. My assumption is that the lynching was faked to spare Frank real violence and explain why he wasn't in jail. He couldn't be pardoned, due to imminent violence, and even his commutation of sentence to life was so unpopular it would make him a constant target. The only way to solve those problems was with a faked death. Anyway, both Frank and the ADL came out of B'nai B'rith, so the League was founded on falsehoods and has always survived on them.

See anything wrong? You can't see the head, can you? At first you think you are looking at the back of the head, but look at the feet. The "corpse" is facing you and the hands are in front. So what's going on above the neck? The photo is unreadable, and that is because it has been tampered with. It is a paste-up, and not a good one. For more, see the guy in white to your left. He is supposed to be the cameraman, but I would think the cameraman is probably taking this picture. And where are his arms? Is that camera just pasted to the front of his body?

If you still don't believe me about Frank, go read the Wikipedia page or any history book. They tell us that the lynchers were prominent men like former Governor of Georgia Joseph Mackey Brown, Georgia Senate President Eugene Herbert Clay, Marietta mayor E. P. Dobbs, and top banker Moultrie McKinney Sessions, but say this wasn't known until the year 2000, when a local librarian published information given to her by victim Phagan's great-niece. And you believe that? This story makes no sense for so many reasons, starting with the fact that lynching was against the law. The idea that prominent people could just drive up to a prison, handcuff a warden, and kidnap and lynch a famous prisoner, without themselves suffering any consequences, is ludicrous. When reading the history, you keep thinking they are going to tell you what happened to the lynchers. There should have at least been an investigation. If top citizens were rumored to have been involved, getting off scott-free, you would expect the Feds to get involved, via the very same Pinkertons or another agency. Instead, nothing. The whole question is just passed over, as if lynching a rich connected white man in 1913 was normal behavior in the South. In a previous paragraph, they admit the prison was heavily guarded, precisely to prevent such a thing, and prisons are heavily guarded regardless. That is why they are called prisons. They aren't guarded by Barney Fife with one bullet in his pocket. Another red flag is the names here, which point to the usual suspects. Once again, they are all Jewish or crypto-Jewish, so there is no way these guys are going to be lynching a fellow Jew.

The Wolverine Watchmen are part of the Boogaloo Movement, according to the same people. The Boogaloos are trying to incite a second Civil War, we are told. Funny. I thought the Bugaloos were a 1970s children's show by Sid and Marty Krofft, with big insects playing in a band. They were buds of H. R. Pufnstuf. Have the Krofft brothers since gone into the FBI, writing these ridiculous scripts for Intelligence?

Possibly, since among those arrested as a Wolverine Watchman was Barry Croft. Just a wild coincidence I'm sure. It couldn't be an inside joke, could it? We also find a Fox, a Franks, a Morrison, and a Caserta. Does the name Franks link us to Leo Frank above? Probably. All Jewish names from the top families. Janis Joplin's girlfriend was Peggy Caserta. Joplin and Jim Morrison are on the 27 club list. You can almost see the agents sitting around the table, making up these names.

Oh, and Joseph Morrison, leader of the Wolverine Watchmen, just happened to come right out of the Marines. He was active 4th Marine Logistics Group at the time of his arrest. Logistics means he was basically Intelligence. So they admit right to our faces he was a spook. He may even be related to Jim Morrison. It wouldn't surprise me if they are cousins.

Another Wolverine Watchmen, Daniel Harris, was also an active-duty Marine at the time of the event. Another, Paul Bellar, came out of the Army at Ft. Jackson. But there's nothing suspicious about that, right?

Let's see, who else is trying to incite a Civil War? Can you say the US Government? The US Government is trying to incite race wars, sex wars, party wars, and any other divisions it can to keep your eyes off its ever-increasing thefts from the treasury, and the ADL is just one arm of that. The FBI is another. And the CIA, NSA, Justice Department, CDC, Pentagon, Congress, Google, and on and on.

Anyway, we are told the Boogaloos were present, heavily armed, at the George Floyd protests, as counter-protestors. That figures, since everything to do with that event was staged by the government, on both sides. All the groups, for and against, were from the CIA/FBI theater wing.

If you remember, a fake storming of the Michigan State Capitol in April 2020 was used as a precursor and template for the later January 6, 2021, fake storming of the national Capitol. In both cases, these events were staged and highly reported to keep your eyes off the real story: Michigan courts struck down Whitmer's tyrannical lockdowns, ruling them unConstitutional. As I have been saying from the beginning, any such “mandates” must come from the legislatures, and the courts agreed. Governors cannot make laws. In Michigan, the Department of Health and OSHA then issued mandates, but of course those bodies also do not have the power to make laws, since they are not legislative bodies. So those mandates were also null and void and unenforceable. It was all a spectacular bluff. To keep you from figuring that out, they had to keep your eyes on these fakes riots, fake stormings of Capitol buildings, fake murders by fake police, fake arrests of fake dissidents, fake jail terms, fake solitary confinements, etc.

OK, now back to Richard Trask. A people search on him finds his real name is Mark Richard Trask, age 33. See either Intelius or Instantcheckmate. So not only is he hiding behind his middle name, it appears he was chosen for this play due to his age. His first interesting relative is Katie Soto, who is really Catherine Jayne Snyder, linking us to Weltons, Stickneys, and Langevins. This also links us to Blair and Phillips. Also Bauer and Napier. Also Bennett, Rogers, Hickey, Vaughan, Bernie, Olsen, Haas, Farkas, Jacobs, Montgomery, and Knakiewicz. I trust you are seeing the lay of the land here: those are again prominent Jewish names from the top families. If you don't know what I mean, remember that Langevin means “from Anjou”. In my paper on the Crusades, I showed you that the oldest and most important Phoenician lines of France came from there. They also produced a famous line of French physicists. We saw the Bennetts in my recent paper on JonBenet Ramsey, whose father is a Bennett of these noble lines. The Rogers come from Standard Oil, linking us to the Rockefellers. The Blairs and Phillips being linked indicate these are relatives from across the pond of Tony Blair and the Queen.

Perhaps most interesting is that our Mark Trask is related to the Harry A. Trask who won the Pulitzer Prize for photography in 1957 for his photographs of the sinking Andrea Doria. Since that sinking was also managed—we assume for insurance fraud—it appears this Trask family has been involved in fakery for a long time.

At MyLife we find our Mark Richard Trask, 33, and they confirm my research since we are told Trask identifies as Jewish. There we find his wife Carolyn Marie Vaughan Trask has lived in Mountain View, CA. That is, Google.

What this tells me is that Trask's assault on his wife was also staged, in order to drive forward the Men-are-Pigs project and split the sexes for profit. It seems like they would have separated the two projects, to keep the second one from spoiling the first, but maybe they have another trick up their sleeves. Or maybe they just got lazy. Maybe Trask was begging for another project after a year and requested another tour in the limelight. He probably felt it was owed him for his rank in the Phoenician Navy. Being a relative of the Queen, he was guaranteed some level of fame from birth, and being around 33, this was his big chance. So they couldn't say no. Some legal commentators are predicting the assault charge could undermine the Wolverine prosecution, but you can now see why it won't: the trials, being faked, can't be influenced by any real legal matters, or matters of logic. The trials are scripted, so whatever the writers want to happen will happen, period.

In other news, I have added a paragraph to my paper on JonBenet, when I noticed in a second reading that the fake photos of JonBenet were done in-house by John Bennett Ramsey's own firm. He was the president of Lockheed Martin's huge computer company, remember? Access Graphics. So he had some of the best people in the business to manufacture these photos. Amazing then that they are still such crap. And amazing no one has ever seen that link before.

And finally, I want to thank everyone who has responded to my recent fund drive. The response was fast and furious, beyond my expectations. It should keep me above water for the time. You guys and gals are great!
