

Tristyn Bailey: Another Vicstim of the Deranged

The Horror! Oh, The Humanity!

Miles in green

If you've been keeping up with Miles' publications over the years, you'll see this story is nothing new and possibly not even worth noting. Miles' last paper addresses this, showing these fakes are endless and abundant. However, just recently I had a fight with my (ex) girlfriend about the Gabby Petito fake out, which kind of got my blood boiling a little. Lifetime even made a TV movie drama last year for Petito released on...Oct 1st. I found it so odd to come face to face with this kind of fear from someone I knew; she literally texted her friend her location on our 5th date since we had quarreled a few times throughout the day. For some reason she told me this trying to pass it off as a joke. It made me so uncomfortable that I pretty much wanted to end the relationship right then and there. I am sick of this stuff warping the minds of women and hope to expose what I can with as little loss of my quality time as possible.

About three weeks ago, Aiden Sean Fucci (great name right?) was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Tristyn Tyne Bailey in the spring of 2021. Already I get weird vibes from the names alone. According to USA Today, "Aiden Fucci, then 14, was arrested on a first-degree murder charge in the death of Bailey – a case that captured national attention for its brutality and the ages of the victim and perpetrator. In February 2023, just before jury selection was to begin, Fucci changed his plea to guilty.”

The article continues, “Judge R. Lee Smith on Friday sentenced Fucci to life in prison, calling the crime ‘heinous, atrocious, and cruel.’” Another report I found wrote how Fucci was smiling and laughing during his convictions, because he’s so evil and such; but I take it as he’s just having fun being a part of this Op.

The murder took place in St. Johns, FL. The story is full of the usual spooky numbers and absurd details. Tristyn was 13 at the time, with Fucci being 14. He stabbed her 114 times, which is beyond belief, even carving the word “KARMA” onto her ankle. Most 14 year old psychos would think of that right?

Just for fun I found the incident report* which feels like bad fiction and is way too long of a read. It’s dated June 21, more than two months after the event took place. The following section are summations and snippets from that report:

Tristyn was reported missing the next day at 1000 hours [May 9th]. At 1806 hours, a man named Daniel Hart located a body near his home after returning from a run, reporting it to 911. Patrol units responded and located a deceased female, later identified as Tristyn Bailey. Deputy Robert Neigebauer pronounced Tristyn deceased at 1815 hours. Tristyn was located in a wooded area approximately 80 feet from the southernmost end of the retention pond south of the Durbin Creek Nursery, located at 4286 Racetrack Road. Her body was discovered on Mother’s Day.

Aiden Fucci was identified as a subject who last had contact with Tristyn. While being picked up by the police, Aiden published a picture of himself on Snapchat (seen in the photo under the title), asking, “Hey guys has anybody seen Tristyn lately?” Right. Aiden provided inconsistent statements, but admitted to leaving [his friend] Doffis’ residence with Tristyn at approximately 0110 hours [early morning on May 9th] and returning home at approximately 0330 hours. While Aiden Fucci was in an audio and video recorded interview room with his mother, Crystal Smith, and father, Jason Fucci, Aiden’s parents asked him about coming home at approximately 0330 hours from the video surveillance in their residence. Specifically, Aiden was asked why he was carrying his shoes, to which he responded his feet hurt. This admission thereby identified himself as the subject observed on the Saddlestone Dr. video surveillance carrying his shoes. The photo below is allegedly Tristyn and Aiden walking towards the last house on the cul-de-sac; time stamp 0016 on the camera.

Video: Evidence released in Tristyn Bailey homicide case

Video evidence has been released in the killing of St. Johns County teen Tristyn Bailey. Aiden Fucci, 14, is charged with her murder. St. Augustine Record

Aiden allegedly had a girlfriend, Zofie Bauman (more weird names?). Jewish names, of course. Somehow, a full interview with Zofie conducted by the police has been posted to Youtube. From this interview we learn Aiden always carried a knife with him whenever he was out of school. Zofie described two of Aiden's most common knives. One was a grey and black folding knife with an orange skull on the handle, with a serrated blade, which Aiden called "Picker." The second knife was a folding knife with a wooden and brass handle, which Aiden called "Poker." The report also notes the police found 8 pocket knives in his home collection. Also found and used during the trial was a ridiculous doodle. The photo below is from the USA Today article linked above.

These guys never know where to stop.

Aiden's grandmother Deborah Spiwak aka Smith, Sparks, and Galvin, has been in the news, so we can look her up. She's only 57, which is strange since Aiden's mother, her daughter, is listed as being 50. So she had her at age 7, I guess.

Note she has DC on her list. Plus, Panama City, Fleming Island and Jacksonville are all big Navy bases. Looks like she is Naval Intelligence.

We can't look up Tristyn since she is underage. They don't list under 18. Her family is described by the media as the Bailey 7. There are heartbreaking (just kidding) podium speeches from them you can see here. This is literally the next weekend! You'll notice almost none of them are crying or upset except for the mom who could possibly have competed for an Emmy that year. You can also donate to their new foundation dedicated in Tristyn's name. Siblings include her sisters Brittany, Alexis, Sophia, and her brother, Teegan. These children are listed on an Intelius search for the father Forrest Lee Bailey. His wife Stacy is listed as a possible relative but I couldn't find her using the same search.

Stacy is Stacy Sheffield, her maiden name, which is why we see Jean Sheffield there. This also links us to Laura Sheffield, 72, possibly her mother. Aka Lorraine Gainous and Lorraine Penigar.

Also note the Sellersville, PA on that list. It seems very out of place, doesn't it? That is a very spooky place, being the home of Deutschhorst Country Club, which was a Nazi hangout in WWII. Sellersville is also the location of the Radium Company of America, allegedly a nuclear weapons manufacturer. So the place is obviously a CIA hideout and always has been. The town remains 94% white, if you count Jews as white. Why did they choose Sellersville for that? Well, that area north of Philly has always been spook central, and Joint Base Willow Grove is nearby now.

Also strange is that I took a quick look at the Baileys in the peerage, and realized I have hit them recently. Do you remember where? In my paper from a few weeks ago on the Farrells. The Baileys are iron billionaires from Wales, formerly Crawshays, linking us to the Russells, Townshends, Leslies, Seymours, Rentons, Fergussons, Balfours, Douglasses, Grahams, and Tyrrells.

This is a real break in this investigation, having listings for spooky places in Colorado such as Littleton, Colorado Springs, Denver, and Fort Collins; all places we have seen before in these hoaxes. Remember we also saw the Judge from earlier has the names Lee and Smith, sharing two surnames between Fucci and Bailey! All in the family. And Lee may equal Levy.

Aiden's mother Crystal is also being charged in this farce, saying she tampered with evidence by trying to wash blood off Aiden's clothes or something. I found no match for Crystal Smith at Intelius. Aiden is too young to be listed. There are two matches for Aiden's father Jason, one being 34 and the other being 38. No listing of Crystal as a possible relative for either one, but the first one has a Michelle Smith listed as a possible relative.

There are actually 93 Crystal Smiths that come up for Colorado, and the one that comes up related to Jason Smith is 48, aka Monk, Wolfe, Wasson and Hale.

Do you see what I see? How about Alexandria and Falls Church, VA? Falls Church is Langley's front doorstep. Just a wild coincidence, I'm sure.

So let's search on Crystal Monk, VA, and sure enough we find her, age 50 this time, but related to the same people, but with a longer places list.

Well, that looks even more like the listing of a CIA agent, doesn't it? We have DC and a lot more military/Intel locations. Regardless, this kid's mother really gets around, doesn't she?

There is a findagrave page for Tristyn with the most photos I have ever seen on that site, including the one of her at a bowling alley, lane...13.

Because everyone bowls in Birkenstocks, right?

Here's another spooky one from that page, where she is flashing a double horn sign at us:

She was born on Jan 18, 2008. Aces and eights galore; burial details unknown.

Before we end, I wanted to mention a serendipitous finding which gave me the idea for the title of this paper. As I was working on this paper at the library I came across this book on the shelf.

Browsing through it I saw a lot examples of early shock publications. It's easy to see how fake and pornographic they are now but I can't help but wonder what people saw as real back then. As stupid as the details are of this Bailey event, it's certainly more subtle trying to pass off as somewhat believable to the asleep. Perhaps people get a sort of high from these shock stories. One other thing that struck me was a chapter in the book linking Myron Fass to Bill Hickok. I snapped a photo of it below: Chapter...13; not sure why Hickok is spelled wrong or why they're using a drawing and not a photograph. Miles has already covered Hickok in his OK Corral paper. It's also interesting that the Aces and Eights signal comes from Hickok's playing cards when he was (allegedly) shot.

Several Western nostalgia buffs have said that Myron Fass bears a striking resemblance to Wild Bill Hickock.

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO?

AFTER FASS and Harris parted ways, things got even wackier at Countrywide, as hard as that might be to believe. Fass had brought in Jeff Goodman, a young writer eager to make the transition from porn paperbacks to the magazine world. Under Goodman's watchful eye, the post-Harris magazines took off on a wild ride and brought pure insanity to the magazine racks of America. Unlike Howard Smukler a year before, Goodman embraced Myron Fass' desire to put out the most over-the-top, sensationalistic magazines on the market. Goodman was made editor-in-chief of a number of titles and Countrywide struck gold once again.

On the door to Fass' office hung a financial Fass "bears a striking resemblance to Hickok", except that he doesn't.

Myron Fass is noted for decades of smut/pulp publications (as well as gun magazines). Most notable would be his publication of one of the early versions of Captain Marvel, created by Carl Burgos (real name Max Finkelstein) and published by Fass' M.F. Enterprises. Fass also worked closely with a Robert W. Farrell (born Izzy Katz according to Wikipedia?). They met through the publisher Eisner & Iger, founded by Samuel Maxwell “Jerry” Iger and William Erwin Eisner. It would be fun to look into the early history of comic book production but I’ll have to leave it for a future paper.

I wanted to find a connection Bill Hickok, however there’s very little I could find about Fass and nothing on his family. Apparently Fass worked with his brother Irving Fass. I also couldn’t find much on him but he could be this Jewish fella. That links to a publication of letters between Irving and his daughter. It’s a weird read. As far as I can assess from my brief readthrough, there’s no mention of Irving’s work in publishing or his work with Myron. One of Fass’ pseudonyms was Chief Merion Riley-Foss. You can be sure he is one of the spooky Phoenician Jews. Oddly enough, he was based out of Florida for the later part of his career.

Miles again: I found this photo untagged by Google today, and it threw me for a loop. Maybe you can help me identify it.

Do you see why it confused me? It looks like Harry Styles, aged by 30 years.
