

The Event in Maine is Fake

of course they all are

Perp Robert Card came out of the military, being an arms instructor. Figures, since these fake mass shootings are all military projects. That is what the military is now doing with your taxes. Support the troops, eh? But what allowed me to peg this one in under ten minutes was a trip to the genealogies. I started by looking him up at Instantcheckmate, which linked him through his wife Cara Lamb* to the Solaks and Braleys, specifically an old couple named Vernon and Marilyn Braley, now dead. Since they are dead, that allowed me to switch over to Findagrave, where I was able to track this family in more depth.

Let's see, his mother is a Bacon and a Stuart. OK, we're done. That's all we need to know. These people are Stuarts. Vernon's wife Marilyn is a Page, and on her page we find she was active in the Order of the Eastern Star.

BANGOR - Marilyn Loretta (Page) Braley passed from this world Dec. 16, 2012. She was born Aug. 16, 1927, in Providence, R.I.

She graduated from Orono High School in three years time and went on to marry Vernon Thomas Braley of Veazie, in September 1945. Marilyn was a homemaker and active in Order of the Eastern Star, surviving as the worthy matron of Cushing Chapter No. 84 several times. She was also active in the Winterport PTA, Winterport Methodist Church and Winterport Girl Scouts. She was employed by Bangor High School and food service. She was a member of Daughters of the American Revolution and was a water safety instructor for the American Red Cross.

She is survived by four children, Loretta Braley Solak and husband, John, Kathleen Braley Laplante and her husband, Keith, James Vernon Braley and his wife, Susan, and Christi Braley Shaver and her husband, Fred. Also surviving are three grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her husband of 62 years, Vernon; and young son, Thomas Orrin Braley, age 5 years. (Bangor Daily News 12/17/2012)

Is this easy or what? That is a Masonic Order, but extra double spooky:

Note the upside down pentagram, which we all know is Satanic. The word in the middle says “FATAL”, confirming that once again. Then we have the chalice and the crown, which indicates the sangreal, which we know is not san greal, or holy grail, but sang real, blood royal. Which of course points us right at the Phoenicians.

As for Vernon, he came out the Army Air Corps and then worked as POL supervisor at Dow AFB Bangor for 35 years. He was also a big Mason, being a past master of at least four lodges, including Order of the Eastern Star. Besides being Stuarts, these Braleys are also Hardings, Russells, Abbotts, Reynolds, and Spencers, and they have been marrying Bacons for centuries. The Hardings go back to Plymouth Colony, then Braintree before moving to Maine in the 1800s. Which means our man Card here is a distant cousin of President Harding, whose ancestors also came through Braintree in the same years. So if you thought they were some downmarket Stuarts, you were wrong.

Do I really need to keep going? No, but I will, just for fun. Vernon's cousin was Clifford Braley, who had been police chief of several towns in Maine, including Sangerville, Machias, and Ashland. Like Robert Card and Vernon Braley, Cliff was a firearms specialist. Also see Sgt. Troy Braley of the Sanford Police Department, just retired in 2022.

We find the same thing with the Solaks. Cara Lamb links us to John Solak, d. 2020, and he was also highly decorated career Air Force and top Mason, Howard Lodge, Winterport. His wife was Loretta Braley.

Also possibly of interest: one of the famous musicians who allegedly continued to play while the Titanic sank was William Brailey, body never found of course since the whole thing was a fraud. His full name was William Theodore Ronald Brailey, and the four names indicate upperclass. As now, lower class people do not have four names. William played piano, cello and flute, telling us the same thing: upperclass. Also an aviator, ditto. Poor people were not building or buying airplanes then. His father was a famous Spiritualist, meaning he claimed to contact the dead. So we already have the proof of fraud. The family was already steeped in fraud. His sister Mabel married Herley Percy Gordon Hanson. Note the middle names, which are surnames. He was a Percy and a Gordon, linking him to dukes. Meaning, these people are also Stuarts. So we now have our link, telling us the name match on Braley/Brailey was not an accident. Confirming that again is William's wife, Teresa Steinhilber, whose father was named August. Jewish.

Robert Card is a Junior, and his mother appears to be Brenda Card, nee Alexander. Strange, since she isn't linked to any Alexanders. We link to a Karri Card, 35, who may be a sister, and she links to a Joseph A. Condon, same age. He, too, is scrubbed, linking us to no Condons. That is another possible red flag, since the Condons are another spooky family, see the Bell Labs physicist Joseph Condon, whose father Edward was in the fake Manhattan Project.

Then we link to a Ruby Card, listed as 84 at Instantcheckmate, but 52 at MyLife. She is apparently married to a Marvin Negley, 51, so she is probably not 84. But the strange thing is that she also goes by Genevieve Smith, despite being related to no Smiths. She links us to a Nicole Herling/Card, who is apparently married to James Herling, 38, of Virginia Beach and Ewa Beach, HI, so probably a soldier at Hickam AFB.

Now let's skim the mainstream stories, which as usual are garbage. We were told in the first hours Robert Card was a nutcase who had spent time in institutions, but they are already admitting that isn't true. They have interviewed a close relative and his army buddies from Reserves, and they all say they had never heard he had any mental issues. Oops! Someone forgot to read those guys into the script. But that would have been hard to do, since the script only started late this summer, when Card is said to have started acting erratically. Tumor on the brain, I guess, like Charles Whitman. Snort, guffaw.

Then we have 18 victims. Of course. It was that or 33. But in the same reports we are told there are only eight fatalities. So which is it? The numbers aren't even close. Plus, I have now read many reports, and I don't understand how they knew it was him immediately. Did he have on a name tag? Did he walk into the bowling alley and say, "Hi, I am Robert Card, a crazy man from the Army Reserve, and I am here to pretend to kill you for the six o'clock news"? We have a picture of him from a security camera, but that could be anyone. And if he was trained by the army, shouldn't he have heard of a balaclava, or at least sunglasses and a hat? He is going to commit mass murder in front of security cams bareheaded? Right.

I don't even see a match there. The hair, eyebrows and beard pattern are all different. No good computer program would match those two guys.

That's what they do to hide the lack of a match. They blur it out even more. No security cam has that little resolution. What would be the point? They are saying he is 5'11" and 230. Not there he isn't. If that guy is 5'11", he isn't over 180. A miss of 50 pounds. So they are just stirring your mind, as usual. They could tell most people he is a 300-pound circus midget, and they wouldn't pause. Gulp it down. It is on CNN so it must be true!

There's another photo no one will bother to analyze. Is there a match? How about the fact his face is very long in the shooter video and his hair looks curly—where it didn't before. Oh, his face is just stretched vertically by the motion, you will say. OK, then why isn't his arm and hand and body stretched in the same direction? In fact, we appear to be looking down on him at an angle, right? That's why we see the ground behind him. The camera is right above him. Well, in that case his head would be SHORTER, not longer. Go try it in the mirror if you don't believe me. Proving this photo is just more stir-you-mind garbage.

What this means is that all those people on TV selling you this story as real are paid liars, whether they are locals or national reporters. They were planted in this town to create this fiction. You should throw this story back in their faces.

I see that Alex Jones is asking if Robert Card was a CIA Mind Control (MKUltra) project today. Hey Alex! You forgot to ask the even simpler question: did this happen at all? As usual, we have no proof it did, just a lot of wild and stupid claims from a mainstream press that is owned by the CIA. You know who is a Mind Control project? It isn't Robert Card. It is the American Citizen. The CIA controls the media which controls the beliefs of most Americans. That is your MKUltra project right there, without any patsies or mass murders. This entire country is a CIA project, including the idiotic Alex Jones Show. Alex Jones, who can't remember anymore that projects are faked. After his fake Sandy Hook trial, that knowledge was erased from his mind as if by magic.

On the same site, Paul Joseph Watson is also selling the story as real, never asking if it might be another Sandy Hook staged crisis to sell more guns. Yeah, you read that right. Not to pass gun laws, but to sell MORE guns. As I have shown you in the previous fakes, the hidden goal is to sell guns. The gun laws are just fear tactics: part of the trick to frighten you into buying more guns before they are taken off the shelves. Stock up on ammunition before it is discontinued. Which, as I hope you have noticed, they almost never are. After Sandy Hook, gun sales hit peaks never before imagined. It was a bonanza for gun companies. Same for these other staged shootings, including the recent Idaho fake, and in some of them I was able to actually finger the guys behind them that owned the local gun shops. But in most cases, it isn't ownership of local gun stores, it is people behind the event invested in the big gun companies, like SturmRuger, Smith&Wesson, and Remington. They love it when you stockpile weapons, since they get rich. Sites like Infowars help them do that, by spreading fear and recommending prepping and stockpiling.

Next day: that has now been proven, as it is being reported gun sales in Maine spiked 200% the days following the fake shooting.

October 29: Card was such an arms expert, he was able to shoot himself in the head twice.

I guess he then shot himself in the back four times to make sure. You can't be too careful in these cases.

In the sidebar at CBSNews where I found the last picture above, I note they have a breaking story about an overnight raid in Gaza. Same thing applies there, where I can see the footage is fake from a mile away. It is maddening to be treated like a blind idiot, expected to buy this as real. Specifically, we see “night raids” in black and white Wonka-vision or something, where lines of fuzzy out-of-focus tanks are somehow seeding the sky and dropping little black dirt clods on some open fields. Oooh, very scary. Then we cut to some bald zombie general (James Glenn) looking very unhealthy. Being a paid liar isn't working for him, I would say. Time to take early retirement and join the Hair Club for Men. From him we go to a bunch of white bags roughly the size of humans, I guess, which we are supposed to believe are body bags. So body bags are now white? Since when? Or is that only in Gaza? The “shrouded bodies” are just tied on the ends. Wow, such a low-budget fake! The Palestinians are too poor to afford body bags, stretchers, ambulances, undertakers, and so on. All they have are sheets and string. Forgetting for the moment the fact that money is flowing into Palestine now, including from the US, just for such things. This is what the millions in humanitarian relief is for, but I guess the body bags aren't making it to the front lines. The money is all being spent on acting coaches, hair gel, and high-dollar Birkenstocks.

We are told the Palestinians are furious, but they don't look furious. They look bored, just standing there waiting for their bonuses from actor's equity. Then we get to hear from former Mossad director Haim Tomer. . . since he wouldn't lie. He is saying something like “Once Hamas has kidnapped and murdered babies and grandmothers, anything goes”. Oivay Caramba, is there anyone left alive on either side that can watch interviews like this without puking their guts out? No, really, I'm serious. If you are anti-Israel, you just watch this with disbelief. You think, why is CBS interviewing the former head of Mossad here? Could this be any more slanted? But if you are pro-Israel, you are thinking pretty much the same thing. You are thinking, “Oh my God, Haim Tomer is the one they chose to sell this to the world! Why not interview Satan himself?”

And in other news, we supposedly just bombed Syria, with Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin saying,

Today, at President Biden's direction, U.S. military forces conducted self-defense strikes on two facilities in eastern Syria used by Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) and affiliated groups.

Self-defense? Has Syria attacked the US lately? Did I miss something? How can this move be defensive? But they were Iran proxies, I will be told. Again, has Iran attacked the US lately? Is Iran raining down bombs on New York or Los Angeles? Check News. Nope. Has Iran parasailed into Orlando, kidnapping kids at Disneyland and putting their heads on the tracks of Space Mountain? Check news. Nope. So how is this self-defensive? I will be told it is in defense of Israel. But again, is Israel now part of the US? Was it just annexed as the 51st state? Check news. Nope. Doesn't Israel have its own Air Force? Check Wiki. Yep,

34,000 active personnel[1]

•55,000 reserve personnel[1]

•684 aircraft[2]

So tell me again why US taxpayers are paying to bomb Syria? True, like the rest of this it never happened, but it doesn't matter: you are paying for it anyway. It is being billed to the treasury as if it did happen.

This is also strange:

Attacks on US military outposts in Iraq and Syria have continued over the weekend.

That was another headline today. What's wrong there? Why does the US have military outposts in Iraq and Syria? Are these independent countries or not? Does Syria have military outposts in the US? No. The only way the US could have outposts there is if those countries are occupied by the US and are just acting as fronts. Something I have told you before. Otherwise there is no reason for them to allow us to have “outposts” there, which just means bases. But if Syria is already occupied by the US, there is no reason for us to be bombing their airports, is there? So it must be theater. The same sort of theater I showed you years ago with Cuba, which we have always occupied from the beginning.

Do you know what else is fake today? Can you say every story in the news, on both mainstream and alternative sites? And that includes the black kids laughing in court and taunting the family of the bicycling police chief they allegedly ran over. That includes the Robert E. Lee statue being melted down (it was a cheap substitute). That includes whatever Tucker Carlson is pretending to do today. Ditto Biden, Trump, Ramaswamy, Kennedy, Musk, Congress, the Supreme Court, and everyone else. About the only story I believe is the one about the Israeli poster child for Covid vaccines dying of a heart attack. THAT I BELIEVE! I am just surprised it made any headlines, and it made almost none.

Since I mentioned Infowars again, I want to be sure to point out something surprising there that almost flew under the radar. It probably would have but that I catalogued it in my head. The previous poll asked “who do you support: Hamas, Israel, US, no one”. 68% responded no one, with the others being about 5, 10, and 17. Wow. So the audience at Infowars is not feeling very patriotic these days, eh? I am sure that result shocked everyone, Jones included. So much so the results were taken down early and probably memoryholed. But you can be sure the boys in the Pentagon and Langley saw them before they were fed into the shredder. Confidence there is NOT high.

I had previously lumped in NaturalNews with Infowars, ZeroHedge, Gateway Pundit, and Breitbart, but starting this week I have noticed a definite pullback on the pro-Israel bent of alternative media at NaturalNews. I think Mike Adams must have seen the poll at Infowars and realized he needed to get off that bandwagon ASAP. He is today publishing official statistics from Israel (Haaretz) which prove the dead babies story is fake, as well as calling into question other major narratives. Unfortunately, by reprinting these casualty statistics from Haaretz, Adams is still cementing in the main lines of the mainstream story, those being that this happened. Adams never considers the possibility that if Israel can fake the babies story and the peace party story, they can fake the entire war. If they lied about that, why trust these casualty numbers? Think they couldn't make them up? Of course they can. They have made up far larger things than this. How hard is it? You make up some numbers on a piece of paper and publish it. You fake some photos and videos and you have some pretend funerals, put on by Mossad's theater department. Israeli defense has tens of thousands of people it can assign to this project, people who literally have nothing better to do than fake another war. As in the US, that is what these people now do: they create fiction. Here we spend a trillion a year on defense, but all those soldiers have nothing to do. They could be assigned rebuilding America—cleaning up the cities, closing the borders, shutting down illegal (and “legal”) drugs, and so on, but that isn't what the Phoenicians want right now. They want chaos. They want the big cities turned into sewers and the small towns turned into morgues. So the only thing the soldiers are assigned is fake events. Fake serial killers, fake mass murderers, fake Mexican drug lords, fake riots, fake killings of and by police, fake mayhem piled up daily so high you can't get a glimpse of the real world.

And finally, I notice that even the BabylonBee is quickly burning all goodwill it has earned for years of truly funny jokes by suddenly revealing a Zionist streak. They have published some extremely unfunny things in the past month, all to do with the Israel war. I think that they—like the rest of these sites talking to the right—have badly misread their audience. The best thing they could do is go silent on the subject. Unfortunately, the cloak has already been torn, and we have seen where they are really coming from. It doesn't seem to be from a mainstream Christian background, as many had thought.

*Of course Langley went to work immediately misdirecting on the question of his wife. They created many results for a search on that, but once you get there you get nothing but fluff and warnings to respect the privacy of this alleged mass murderer. Because all mass murderers deserve privacy, right?
