THE COLLEYVILLE SYNAGOGUE HOSTAGE CRISIS WAS FAKED

How easy is this one? Let's see, we get the word synagogue, so we see the Jews attacking themselves for sympathy again, for the millionth time and the ten thousandth time since 2001. If you don't believe me, notice that we find this at Wikipedia:

Clergy and staff at the synagogue had taken courses for a number of years through the FBI, the Anti-Defamation League, the Colleyville Police Department, and Secure Community Network in order to prepare for the possibility of an intruder.

You have to laugh. So the FBI and ADL had prepped the place, but that isn't supposed to be suspicious? They practice a scenario for years, and then presto it happens, just like they planned it. Amazing.

Wiki and The Daily Telegraph give us another clue, when they tell us Aafia Siddiqui was allegedly being held nearby. She is the fake Al Qaeda terrorist linked to the fake 911 mastermind Khalid Sheikh Muhammed. She is serving a fake life sentence in Fort Worth while Muhammed is serving a fake one at Guantanamo. Neither one are actually there, they just come in for photo ops occasionally.

That's Muhammed, a Jewish actor in a turban and fake beard.

That's Aafia Siddiqui. Very white for an alleged Pakistani, isn't she? Siddiqui is a neuroscientist from a rich family, just so you know. She has degrees from MIT and Brandeis, the latter of course being a big Jewish university. Her bios name no parents, but I would assume her mother is Jewish. Her name is probably Aaliya, not Aafia. She's probably a cousin of the guy in the UK who sued his parents for support and made headlines for it. The 41-year-old lawyer and graduate of Oxford, Faiz Siddiqui, sued his parents for support after a family quarrel where they cut him off. He had been living rent-free in a £1 million flat on the edge of Hyde Park. This would link Aafia to Indian screenwriter Javid Siddiqui, giving us more big links:

Javed Siddiqi belongs to the family of great freedom fighters, Mohammad Ali Jouhar and his brother Maulana Shaukat Ali well known as the Ali brothers. His great grandfather Hafiz Ahmed Ali Shauq was a historian and had written a number of books, he was the first librarian of Shahi Qutub Khana now known as Raza Library. His father Shujaat Ali, had served in the same library as an assistant librarian for a long time.

Siddiqi started his career in films as a dialogue writer and assistant director to Satyajit Ray in Shatranj Ke Khilari. He also assisted James Ivory as chief assistant director.

Siddiqi has four children: Murad, Lubna, Sameer and Zeba. Lubna Salim, and Sameer Siddiqui are both involved in the film and theatre arena. Lubna is a stage actor-singer and married to theatre and television director Salim Arif. Murad has a production company and has directed TV programmes. Sameer has followed in his father's footsteps, and writes for Hindi films and TV soaps.

So that's who the Siddiquis really are: actors. Also see Nawazuddin Siddiqui, a famous Bollywood actor. A bit more research shows these Siddiquis are Lambardars:

powerful families of zamindars of the village revenue estate, a state-privileged status which is hereditary and has wide-ranging governmental powers: mainly revenue collection and a share in it, the collaboration with the police for maintaining law and order in the village, and it comes with the associated social prestige.^[1] In contrast, the Zaildar who was the grand jagirdar and usually had the power over 40 to 100 villages(gao). The Zail and Zaildar system of British Raj was abolished in 1952 in India but the lambardar system still continues in Pakistan and in some places in India.

Those telling these stupid 911 stories of fake terrorists are counting on you not knowing that.

This event in Colleyville is being used to resell the whole 911 charade, which everyone not heavily drugged by Pfizer now knows was a inside job, having nothing to do with Arabs, box cutters, or hijacked airlines.

Of course Fort Worth is also the site of Joint Base Fort Worth NAS JRB. So this hoax was probably run out of there.

If you still don't believe me, see this article by Larry Johnson, former Deputy Director of the Anti-Terrorism Assistance Training Program for the State Department, admitting the FBI violated all protocol and SOP (Standard Operating Procedure) when it stormed the synagogue after all hostages had been released. He says it makes no sense to him and that the FBI has a lot of explaining to do. But I just explained it: THE WHOLE THING WAS FAKE.

A Walker and a Cohen were allegedly held hostage. That figures. The Walkers of Texas are related to the Bushes, in case you forgot.

The perp, some British actor named Akram, supposedly had a long record, both criminal and psychological, with an MI5 profile, but we are supposed to believe the US let him in just after Christmas via JFK airport, without a mask or a vaccine, I guess. You can be sure he isn't really dead. Probably on a beach in Hawaii spending his appearance money.

Also notice that in the films you can see that Akram followed the hostages out of the building. If this event had been real, he would have been shot by a sniper at that point, making the dangerous later storming unnecessary. But Larry Johnson forgets to mention that little problem.

Of course the media, led by the Washington Post, claimed the Jewish community had been shaken throughout the world, and that this was another example of anti-Semitism. No, it was just more fake news, brought to you and filmed by the huge theater departments of the FBI, CIA, Air Force, etc. They literally have nothing better to to than create this fiction week by week.
