

The Epstein Files

by Miles Mathis

November 17, 2025

This is going to be very short since I don't wish to give this story any more legs. Some readers can't understand why I am ignoring this top story and others while researching people like Rose Byrne. Well, because the Rose Byrne story is far more real than this. And more interesting.

I have said before I think the Epstein case is all manufactured to keep your eyes off other things. Why do I think that? Because all these guys, including Epstein, Gates, Clinton, Prince Andrew, and Trump, are gay. They have no interest in Lolitas and never did. If they were diddling anyone on those planes or on that island, it was boys, not girls. Plus, the Epstein story makes no sense in all other ways. He was never in jail and didn't die in jail and is still alive somewhere. Likewise, Ghislaine Maxwell isn't in jail and never was. Epstein and Maxwell are rich people from the Phoenician navy, working as some sort of agents. Many in the government have admitted Epstein was CIA and he admitted it himself. Look it up. The story is just the most high profile Men-are-Pigs story of the past two decades, shoved down your throat to split the sexes and provide you with distraction and entertainment while Rome burns and the treasuries continue to be looted.

Am I saying these people aren't creeps and are innocent? No, they are probably up to all sorts of mischief, sexual and otherwise, but you have bigger things to worry about than who they are sleeping with, such as the utter destruction of the country and world. Starting with the Covid genocide, but also including the rewriting of history, the destruction of art, the destruction of science, the rise of AI, the pillaging of the middle class, the destruction of the family and of the heterosexual relationship, the rise of censorship, the destruction of the internet, and the destruction of the female sex.

I have said all that before, but the reason I am here today is in response to a specific story that came out today, proving I am right again.

Trump calls on House Republicans to vote to release Epstein files

Complete hogwash, since Congress doesn't need to vote on this. The release of criminal files has nothing to do with Congress. It is a matter of the FBI and Justice Department, which could release any files with no involvement of Congress. They are executive branch entities which require no vote of Congress to act. Yes, they are ultimately funded by Congress, or should be, but Congress doesn't have to vote every time these departments release files. Yes, the President, as head of the executive branch, has to sign off on a major release of files, but Congress doesn't have to vote on it. So this is all the usual misdirection. It is the continuation of the theater, of the vaudeville that has become our government.

Which means the dust-up between Trump and Marjorie Taylor Green is also theater. These people are all primarily actors reading from scripts, as should be obvious with Trump, an actor from The Apprentice. Their main function is to keep your eyes off the real world and all real news, especially the ongoing rape of the treasury by the banks, Big Pharma, Big Tech, and the department of defense.

Next day: The House just voted to release files, but that is pretty much meaningless. The Senate will probably sit on it, and if they don't it won't matter, because all the important stuff will be shredded or redacted, supposing any such files actually exist. The government will never investigate itself, so I don't know why you keep expecting it to. We saw the same thing with the Kennedy files recently, and almost nothing interesting came out of that. They certainly didn't come clean on the whole fake. Ditto for the Lincoln files, which they have been faking for 160 years. And when are they going to release the Titanic files, the Hindenburg files, the Earhart files, the World War files including the Hitler files, the Vietnam War files, the Manson/Tate files, and a million others things? Never. But it doesn't matter because you have me. I have reconstituted all the files of history from the mists.
