

Lee County (FL) Sheriff - All the World's A Stage

By Rico Suave

Okay, this is a real quick one for anyone who is new to this site, or anyone who needs a refresher that “they” lie to us every chance they get. I was up early this morning, May 31, 2022. I like to read whatever suits my fancy and it just so happened I was perusing the internet (because I am a glutton for punishment) this morning. The very first “story” that caught my eye was this disaster:

<https://nypost.com/2022/05/30/mugshot-released-for-10-year-old-daniel-isaac-marquez-after-threat-to-shoot-up-florida-school/>

It is entirely possible they will take this down or break the link by the time this missive gets up on Miles’ site, so let me break it down for you...

1] A Lee County Sheriff deputy perp-walks a 10-year-old boy called Daniel Isaac Marquez out to the waiting sheriff cruiser. Our 10-year-old boy is filmed, head to toe, face clearly visible, hands behind his back, wearing his Crocs sandals...and looking like a hard-ass. Here is what Lee County sheriff vehicles look like: <https://www.sheriffleefl.org/about-us/> I don’t know, maybe it’s an unmarked car?

2] Our young perp is placed in the back seat, behind the driver’s seat, of a waiting car. There are no markings on the car...AND they always put the perps in the rear seat behind the front passenger seat.

In Florida, and around the country as near as I can tell, 10-year-old perps accused of a crime are NEVER identified, much less perp-walked on video UNLESS they are being charged as an adult. Here is an interpretation of the Florida law, from 1994:

<http://www.myfloridalegal.com/ago.nsf/Opinions/EDECD48C00E94E1E8525622100633481>

Note that it seems to hinge on being charged with a felony OR being charged with three or more misdemeanors, that an adult would be charged with. So, this is what our boy was charged with: The boy was charged as a juvenile with making a written threat to conduct a mass shooting, Marceno said.

Certainly, does not seem to me that this juvenile charge rises to the level of the law for publication of his name and likeness.

And note what our boy criminal mastermind said about obtaining the weapons in question: Daniel then allegedly shared an image of four assault rifles that he said he bought and told his buddy to “get ready for water day” — referencing a recent school-sponsored event in which students participate in water activities.

Naturally, I could find no “images” of the assault weapons in question. However, there is this stupidity: <https://www.wesh.com/article/florida-child-school-shooting-threat/40150970> The guns shown are shotguns. I have seen no images or text the boy allegedly sent of the “real” guns the 10-year-old purchased. That boy must live on the mean streets of Cape Coral to be able to obtain assault weapons. Note also in this link that the young perp’s face is blotted out AND the redactions on the police report shown in the video. Quite different from what we say in the New York Post story and video.

Finally, let’s take a real quick look at Lee County Sheriff Carmine Marceno:

Roided up badass with half his crew wearing face masks and completely unidentifiable. He was “appointed” sheriff in 2018. But guess what? Our hero sheriff IS RUNNING FOR REELECTION IN 2024 but gets to run as the incumbent even though he was appointed. And there is this:

Nothing to see here folks, move along...
