

Patriot Front infiltrated by FBI?

No

Ethan Huff at Natural News published today an article entitled

PATRIOT FRONT is just the FBI in disguise: Here's the proof

Sounds great, right, since that is true. Except that Huff then proceeds to spin that by telling us FBI had only “infiltrated” the Patriot Front. No, the FBI didn't infiltrate the group, it started it from the ground up. Every single one of those guys is an agent. That's why the photos of them always scream “military”. They always dress exactly alike: military. They all have short hair: military. “They carry shields and flags, marching with military precision..” They are all masked: agents.

Huff admits:

For all the bad press it gets, Patriot Front seems to have some kind of special protection for its members, including front man and founder Thomas Ryan Rousseau, who avoided criminal convictions thanks to the FBI blocking them.

All of the men were masked except for Rousseau, and all of them were allowed to keep their masks on while being detained. Many of them were also allowed to keep their backpacks.

If the FBI had only infiltrated the group, that wouldn't be true. Infiltration doesn't buy you federal protection. Infiltration is supposed to be secret, by definition. But don't you think these guys might figure out they were part of a government group once they were treated with kid gloves by police and courts? Not much of an infiltration, is it?

The idea of infiltration is part of the cover, so that when some of these guys get caught as agents, FBI can claim they were embedded. You see how that works? Except for one problem: to be embedded implies some of the other members are NOT FBI, which isn't true. No one is embedded since all are FBI.

When 70 members were arrested in Idaho on conspiracy charges, most of them pled guilty. What? I guess they knew the script, since FBI refused to cooperate with state prosecutors and the judge dismissed the whole thing.

Huff quotes @amuse that this indicates FBI is running a honeytrap to fool young conservative men into joining, where they can be spied on and kept track of. No, that isn't what is going on at all, since there is no infiltration and no entrapment. The group wasn't manufactured as a honeytrap. It was manufactured like all the other ones like Proud Boys, Oathkeepers, Vanguard America and all the rest were: to control and blackwash the opposition. These guys are paid to do stupid stuff like carry Confederate flags, act like neo-Nazis, and make idiotic manifestoes and pronouncements, all to give any patriot movement bad press. They want you to think anyone protesting on certain issues is an ignorant neo-Nazi skinhead or white supremacist. This has the effect of squelching protest and opposition, you see.

The name Patriot Front is a dead giveaway as well, since no real group of patriots would call themselves a front. This is FBI winking at you by admitting the group is just a front. Not infiltrated, but a straight-up government front.

Patriot Front has already been outed by Joe Rogan and Elon Musk, but not thoroughly enough to suit me. Both guys implied PF had been infiltrated, and as we see that isn't the case. None of these patriot groups were infiltrated. All were manufactured in toto by FBI theatrical. That also includes groups on the left like BLM and Antifa, which are just as transparent. If you are a reader of mine, you know FBI has been doing this from the beginning, back to 1924 when Hoover was manufacturing fake gangsters and Communists in order to expand his budget. Oh, and by the way, Rogan and Musk have also been manufactured, though not by FBI theatrical. More like CIA theatrical.

Thomas Ryan Rousseau is a bit of a ghost, with SPLC having a strange bio for him. This is one stand-alone paragraph there:

Rousseau was also a Boy Scout attempting to become an Eagle Scout before his 18th birthday.

Since they refuse to tell us much else about him, like where he lives or works, it is strange we get that information about being an Eagle Scout, tagged with the usual numerology. We find he is from Coppell High School in North Dallas, which is a wealthy bedroom community with a large Asian population. Coppell HS has 41% Asians, which is very very high. However, that is good for their academics, which are stellar, as well as for their music program, which is the best in the entire US. More to the point here, their film program is also very advanced, and they have their own TV news station, KCBY, which is run by Irma Kennedy, previously of NBC. Do you see how that ties in here? SPLC doesn't tell us any of that, of course, but Wikipedia does. I suspect Rousseau actually comes out of New Tech High, which spun off from Coppell HS in 2008. New Tech is covered in red flags, being a nationwide project out of Napa in 1996 funded by Bill Gates, now having over 200 schools in the US and Australia. So another Phoenician project. They now run the public highschools as well. Isn't that cozy?

Anyway, it appear that Rousseau was the editor of the school newspaper at this very progressive highschool, so it is sort of strange he would turn out to be a neo-Nazi, now dressing like this:

You have to laugh. Is that what the FBI thinks neo-Nazis look like now? Longhairs with beards and cowboy hats? Really? What happened to the skinhead thing? I guess someone thought they could kill two birds with one stone, blackwashing hippies at the same time here. They just need to put him in tie-dyes and Birnies.

He's even more of a fashion plate there, with his peacoat, fashion scarf, bolo tie, and I'm-a-G-man hat. Is he wearing a red bandana under that hat? Don't let the bloods catch him with that, Dude, as I can tell you from experience.

This guy might as well be wearing an "I'm a Narc" gimme cap and "I'm with FBI, stupid" T-shirt.

I note they are also blackwashing the Gadsden, don't tread on me flag. All part of Operation Chaos.

But let's return to SPLC's ridiculous bio of him. Here is the second sentence on that page:

He honed his propaganda skills in the school's newspaper, which later propelled his rapid ascension into leadership on the racist right...

Does that make any sense? How could you hone your propaganda skills in a public highschool newspaper, and even if you did how would that propel you into rapid ascension to leadership on the racist right? Where I came from in Texas, working on a school newspaper was pretty much meaningless, and wouldn't propel you into a position at Walmart, much less to founding a major neo-Nazi organization in your teens. Especially if you came out of this progressive highschool in the Dallas suburbs, funded by Bill Gates, where—if you were honing any sort of propaganda skills—it wouldn't be for “far right” causes. It would be for supporting the current regime, wouldn't it? So his “rapid ascension” needs to be explained in another way, which we have just discovered.

In fact, Rousseau's student newspaper is still online, where you can read some of his columns. I think FBI back-inserted some of them, since they don't sound like they were written by a highschooler, but this one does and it stands out for its subject: Diversity Club brings friendly atmosphere to students of varied backgrounds

It is a straight-up report by Rousseau: he has nothing to say against this club and seems to be promoting it. Does that sound like a neo-Nazi or white supremacist to you? How could the same guy who wrote that write this other stuff he is reported to have written? I will tell you: he was recruited at some point in 2016 (senior year) and became this neo-Nazi actor. FBI either wrote this stuff at the time and inserted under his byline, or inserted it later, backdating it. I guarantee there are some students who went there who can confirm my reading of this. If you are one of them, email me. I will keep your name out of it if you prefer.
